Charles H. McCann Technical School

The class of 2005 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Heather Marie Torres, a member of our class. An exceptional person in many ways, Heather set a high standard for herself. She was full of energy, enthusiasm, and determination that helped her to achieve every goal and complete every task. Because of the many lives she has reached and touched in so many ways, the graduating seniors would like to honor her with this:

Heather, you will be forever remembered and eternally missed.
